Linn Dara School Transition Programme

9 Week Programme for young people aged 15-18 attending CAMHS who are not currently engaged in education or training but want to re-engage in education

General Information

The Linn Dara Transition Programme is available to young people between 15 and 18 years old. They must be attending the CAMHS service and be referred by their CAMHS team.

The nine week programme is suited to young people who are experiencing difficulties at school, which may be leading to social challenges, low attendance, or the risk of educational disengagement.

During the programme, the teachers work closely with each young person to build resilience and skills to facilitate social and educational success. The Linn Dara Transition Programme endeavours to establish appropriate pathways back to education by linking in with students' regular school or prospective alternative placements.

Our Aims

The transition programme is a group, activity based, part time programme that aims to

- Re-engage students in a positive learning environment by providing an academic, social skills and activity based programme,
- Enhance personal development
- Promote personal skills,
- Provide learners with the opportunity to gain certification at QQI level 3 or 4.
- The focus of the programme is on improving basic skills, goal setting and building skills and confidence of the participants.

Programme Content

The programme content will include

- QQI level 3/4 modules , support in Junior Certificate/Leaving Certificate subjects, Art, PE, Horticulture, Careers, Life Skills
- Liaising with educational placements.
